As Nicka'ls called out 24 substitute carsmen in his campaign to make over the varsity crew following the race at Ithaca, it is still uncertain how many of the present squad will be taken to Gales Ferry. He will not take the entire set now rowing, but an unusually large number of promising oarsmen without seasoned experience will be taken to the training camp on the Thames. It is also expected that some of the veterans will regain their season.

It is also expected that some of the veterans will regain their seats in the regular shell before rowing at New London has proceeded far. The present center of the campaign is the search for a new varsity stroke. Harriman's removal to No. 2 has established the fact that he will not be the pace setter for the eight this season, although he is regarded too valuable an oarsman to be removed from the shell. Morris Hadley is regarded as a fixture at bok and Captain Low at No. 3.

NATIONAL COMMISSION DECIDES FED. TANGLE Umpires Case in Which Player Dickson, Former Pittsburgher, Involved."

The National Baseball commission Wednesday promulgated a finding awarding Player Dickson, formerly of the Pittsburgh Federal league club to the Rochester club. Dickson was playing with the Houston Texas, club and the testimony showed that he had been sold to the Minneapolis club. The commission held this latter sale to be null and void and states that the "Minneapolis club's right to re-imburser mt by President Gwinner of the Pitts urgh Rederal league club of the purchase price is beyond question." The player was originally with Rochester.

In the other finding, awards of liberty. Said "ump" then save the Springfield High leader the light sign to look like Mr. Villa.
